

Weather or Not

Neither heat, nor humidity, nor rain, nor sticky days or nights will stop you from looking 110% polished. Consider this your accu-wardrobe forecast.

Hot & Humid

Didn't expect to see black and jewel tones, did ya? Despite conventional wisdom, you don't have to wear only light colors and linen in superhot temps. These pieces boast cooling silhouettes or moisture-proof tech. Or both!

GO DARK
The side cutouts are chic; the anti-stink lining is genius. West56, $95, west56clothing.com

COME FULL CIRCLE
Perforated sandals are the trendiest way to ventilate; rubber soles prevent slipping. Sol Sana, $90, needsupply.com

HIT PRINT
Bold patterns hide sweat. The breezy asymmetrical cut means you'll have less of that sweat to conceal, tho! Sanctuary, $139, sanctuaryclothing.com

AIR OUT
Side-split pants are fashion's central AC. And the length works on long or short legs. Tolani, $173, tolanicollection.com

Got a major case of swamp ass? See your dermatologist for Rx creams, oral meds, or...Butt-tox: Botox for your tush. Off-label use of the neurotoxin can block sweat glands. It'll set you back $1,000-$2,000 for six months of a sweat-free booty.

NIX THAT SOGGY BUM
These skivvies have water-wicking powers. Fruit of the Loom, $9.94 for pack of 4, walmart.com

NOW ABOUT YOUR HAIR...
We feel a storm of frizz coming on! Humid air exposes your hair's frail inner cortex, says Matt Fugate, a hairstylist at the Serge Normant at John Frieda salon in NYC. Fight the F word by sealing off weak spots with a keratin-spiked serum, such as Dove Regenerative Nourishment Serum-in-Oil ($6, at drugstores).

Steamy & Rainy

So Al Roker just ruined your morning with this sogfest. Reach for pieces that help you brave the elements—without making you look like some swashbuckling fisherman.

STAY IN THE CLEAR

Wearing a pretty sheath? This transparent parka protects (and displays) it. Tory Sport, $195, torysport.com

RAIN, MAN!

The canvas now has a water-repellent coating that shrugs off a soaking. Converse, $65, converse.com

PROTECT YOUR PURSE

Toss your leather in a fetching tote. Save My Bag, $115, bloomingdales.com

GET IN LINE

A rain bootie you'll want to wear indoors. Bernardo, $165, bernardoi1946.com

BLACK & WHITE WHEN DRY

BRIGHTEN UP

Drizzle lights up this 'brella with color. Squid London, $40, momastore.org

NOW ABOUT YOUR HAIR...

"On rainy days, hair tends to puff up even more than it would on a run-of-the-mill humid day, and products with ceramides act like a waterproof buffer between the elements and your strands," says Fugate. Apply Kérastase Keratine Discipline Keratine Thermique ($43, kerastase-usa.com) on damp or dry hair.

TIE ONE ON

How cool! This dress transforms from sleeved to sleeveless by tying the arms around the waist. Norma Kamali, $99, normakamali.com

HURRAY! SLEEVES!

Dry Heat

Translation: It'll feel crazy toasty during the day and nippy at night. Precisely why we like layerable pieces in neutral colors that take you from morning coffee to evening cocktails.

TOP IT OFF

The bomber: sleeker than a sweater, in a soft hue that goes with anything. Zara, $69.90, zara.com

CARDI BY DAY

SCARF IT

Outfit changer, neck warmer. Chan Luu, $170, chanluu.com

DOUBLE YOUR WINS

Snap on the bottom come p.m. chill. The matte fabric won't wrinkle. Aella, $275, aella.co

GO EARTHY

Bonfire? Add mid-calf socks to your wedges. Hipster-cool. Lauren Ralph Lauren socks, $14, macy.com; Mint & Rose sandals, $195, mintandrose.com

NOW ABOUT YOUR HAIR...

Hot, arid air sucks moisture from strands, leaving them tinder-dry and prone to flyaways. Use an oil-based fuzz tamer (water-based versions worsen things) like Bumble and Bumble Hairdresser's Invisible Oil Dry Oil Finishing Spray ($34, bumbleandbumble.com). Its macadamia nut oil keeps hair soft and manageable.
